Day 01: Arrival at Leh – Transfer to Hotel (20 Minutes Approximately)

The New Delhi to Leh flight is an experience by itself. The aircraft flies over green foothills of the Himalayas, snow-capped peaks, glaciers, lakes, windswept valleys dotted with hamlets and dun landscape offering a visual delight. Remember to book a window seat to enjoy the views. Our representative will welcome you at The Kushok Bakula Rinpoche Airport, Leh & transfer to the Hotel. Rest for the day at the hotel for acclimatization to the high altitude. A short acclimatization walk in / around the property is recommended in the evening.

Overnight at Leh (Note: Eat light and drink sufficient water to keep yourself hydrated)

MEAL PLAN: D

Day 02: Excursion to the Sham Valley: (90 km Approximately)

After breakfast, drive towards the confluence of Indus & Zaskar; en-route witness the gravity-defying phenomenon of the Magnetic Hill and gawk at amazing views of the airport from Spituk Monastery. Gurudwara Pather Sahib, built to commemorate the visit of Guru Nanak Dev to Ladakh in 1517 has a story waiting to be heard. On your way back, pay homage to the war heroes at The Hall of Fame. Evening visit to Leh palace, Shanti Stupa and market. (Pro Tip: The evening Light & Sound Show at the Hall of Fame is awesome)

Overnight at The Leh.

MEAL PLAN: B|D

Day 03: Leh – Khardungla Pass – Nubra Valley (125 Kms / 4-5 hrs Approximately)

After breakfast, proceed to Nubra Valley via Khardung La - the world's highest motorable pass. Nubra valley - the Shyok River meets the Siachen River to form this large valley separating the Ladakh and Karakoram ranges. Upon arrival visit Diskit monastery – oldest and largest Buddhist monastery in Nubra valley. Maitreya Buddha Statue and Later visit Hunder Village and Cold desert - the only place in India where twin humped camels are found.

Overnight in Nubra Valley.

MEAL PLAN: B|D

Day 04: Nubra Valley – Pangong

Embark on a picturesque drive from Hunder, visiting the Majestic Diskit Monastery en route to Pangong Tso, an endorheic lake in the Changthang region situated at a height of 4,350 m. The lake is 134 km long and extends from India to China covering 604 sq. km. During winter the lake freezes solid, despite being saline water. The journey is very pleasant with the road meandering alongside Shayok River, though there are some rough patches and water crossing which can be a bit of a challenge. After crossing Agham & Durbuk, we will reach Changthang, a region that is quite popular for its scenic beauty, lakes, wildlife and is home of the Changpa tribe, a nomadic and pastoral community. Spend a starlit night at the retreat, enjoying the surreal views of the milky way like a highway.

Overnight at Pangong (Pro Tip: Leave early to avoid getting stuck at water crossings)

MEAL PLAN: B|D

Day 05: Pangong – Leh

Enjoy a picturesque sunrise at Pangong Tso, it is almost meditative to look at the changing colours of the lake and the surrounding landscape. Pangong Tso is in Changthang, a high altitude plateau. Changthang Wildlife Sanctuary is home to many rare species of flora and fauna and the nomads roam the pastures with their herds of cattle. The famous Pashmina goat is found here in abundance. After your breakfast drive back to Leh, crossing Chang La (17,590 ft.), a high-altitude pass, it will leave you breathless, with the sheer beauty and altitude. Enroute visit Thiksey Monastery, Rancho school and Shey Palace.

Overnight at Leh (Pro Tip: Eat light and keep some chocolates handy)
